THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

Although on 1 January 1950 Ernst Fischer assumed the post of editor, owner and publisher of the periodical Tagebuch (formerly called Oesterreichisches Tagebuch), the actual editing of the publication is done by Heinz Hollitscher. The offices of Tagebuch are located at Vienna IV, Mohllebensgasse 1.

2. Hollitscher returned to Vienna in early December 1949 from Berlin, where he had attended meetings of the Cominform secretariat. He reported to Friedrich Hexmann, Hermann Langbein, and Franz West a decision reached by the Cominform that purification of the Communist Party in Western Europe was to be held down to a minimum and would not take place at all in Austria.
